PROUD PREMIER CONFERENCE SPONSOR
Thank you for coming to the 2015 AASLH Annual Meeting in the great, great city of Louisville!

Browsing through this program and cantering through the conference itself the next few days, I know you will see that the Local Host Committee (led by Scott Alvey and Kent Whitworth) and the Program Committee (led by Kyle McCoy) have lived their chosen theme of The Power of Possibility. They have stretched the conference to make an outstanding professional development, intellectual, and social experience.

For the AASLH staff, just seeing this great adventure launched is our annual encounter with the power of possibility. We could never succeed without the help of an army of volunteers, from the Program and Host Committees, to the AASLH Council and many other committee members active throughout the year, to the dozens of volunteer staff here on the ground making this meeting possible. Thank you, all! And special thanks to our sponsors and exhibitors. Not only compatriots in doing history and promoting historical organizations, they are the reason the meeting is affordable.

Over the fifty-three hours of conference programming, we hope you too will find ways to challenge yourself to live the power of possibility. Now is the moment to try a session on a topic a bit out of your wheelhouse. Here is a conference where you’ll pull strands of ideas together to take home and implement something amazing at your institution. This will be the time to talk to someone you otherwise wouldn’t, who is famous in the field, or who is completely new and will value the connections, thoughts, and collegiality that you can share. Are you ready?

Sincerely,

John Dichtl
President & CEO
AASLH
The sun is shining bright in our old Kentucky home! It seems like yesterday we were in Minnesota passing out bourbon balls and contemplating the possibility of Bigfoot, all to stir up excitement about the 2015 AASLH Annual Meeting coming to Louisville. Whether you are a first-time attendee or a frequent participant, the annual meeting can reenergize our passions for history and its importance and relevance in today’s world. During the past twelve months, the program and host committees have drawn inspiration from this year’s conference theme, The Power of Possibility, to create experiences that encourage networking, collaboration, and opportunities to discover the power of our own possibilities.

Meeting in a city whose growth and success sprang from the barriers faced by travelers at the Falls of the Ohio, the power of possibility allows the public history field to see opportunities instead of obstacles—to stop viewing boundaries as lines of limitations, and instead view them as permeable lines where gaps of possibility exist. During your week here, we hope you draw inspiration from these communities that sprang up as an enterprising few shifted their westward thinking to those of ideas of service, community, and innovation. Life handed them lemons and they made bourbon!

The 2015 AASLH Annual Meeting includes a great selection of sessions, evening events, and tours that are packed with opportunities to learn, network, and enjoy our host city. Keynote speaker Sam Wineburg, author of Historical Thinking and Other Unnatural Acts: Charting the Future of Teaching the Past, will challenge us to ponder “Why Historical Thinking Is Not about History.” For the plenary session, Kentucky treasure, author, and environmentalist Wendell Berry and state historian Dr. James C. Klotter will engage in a discussion, moderated by public television host (and former Kentucky Historical Society board member) Renee Shaw, about the importance of the past in preparing for the future. At the awards banquet, Carol Kammen, author of Zen and the Art of Local History, will illuminate the possibilities that exist in the study of state and local history.

We hope that the 2015 Annual Meeting energizes you, expands your knowledge, helps you explore what is possible, and allows you to discover resources to advance the work you do in the field of state and local history.

Sincerely,

Kyle McKoy

  - Please note that BATTLEDECKS 2015: The Bluegrass Battle Royale will be held on FRIDAY night, September 18 at 9:30 pm. The preliminary program guide mistakenly listed it on Thursday.
Sam Wineburg, Thursday’s Keynote Speaker, is the Margaret Jacks Professor of Education and a professor of history, by courtesy, at Stanford University, where he directs the doctoral program in history education as part of the Stanford History Education Group. His Historical Thinking and Other Unnatural Acts: Charting the Future of Teaching the Past (2001) won the Association of American Colleges and Universities’ Frederic W. Ness Book Award for the work that “best illuminates the goals and practices of a contemporary liberal education.” He has also received, with his collaborators, the James Harvey Robinson Prize and the William Gilbert Award from the American Historical Association.

Friday’s plenary session will be a discussion with author Wendell Berry and Kentucky state historian Dr. James C. Klotter moderated by KET personality Renee Shaw. Berry and Klotter will discuss the importance of studying the past as a way to prepare for the future. Berry is an author and Kentucky treasure, world-famous for his writings on nature and ecology. Klotter received his Ph.D. in history from the University of Kentucky. He is the author, coauthor, or editor of almost twenty prize-winning books, including the standard works on Kentucky used at the elementary, secondary, and college level. Shaw is the host of Connections with Renee Shaw on Kentucky Educational Television.

The Awards Banquet will feature Carol Kammen, author of The Encyclopedia of Local History, Zen and the Art of Local History, and Ithaca: A Brief History, and a regular columnist for History News. In addition, she received the AASLH Award of Distinction in 2007. She has taught for many years at Cornell University and serves as the Tompkins County historian.

BATTLEDECKS 2015: The Bluegrass Battle Royale
Friday, September 18 at 9:30 pm–???
► Location: Check at Registration Desk for Location
At AASLH 2014, Bill Brewster (First Division Museum at Cantigny) overcame an impassioned, late-game charge by George Neptune (Abbe Museum) to take home the trophy. Who will challenge them for Battledecks supremacy in 2015? How about you? Join us when the best and brightest in the museum field compete head-to-head in this inventive, interactive, and improvisational competition highlighting the theme of this year’s meeting, The Power of Possibility. Ten contestants will make a four-minute presentation on ten Power Point slides they have never seen before. Topics will range from the relevant and real to the surreal and silly, and contestants will be judged by the audience on their adherence to the theme, creativity, and delivery. If last year is any indication, this will be one of the highlights of the annual meeting, so make plans to stay up late and attend.

Making/History
How can history museums and historical organizations benefit from the Maker Mania that is sweeping the world through Maker Faires and the like? Learn to leverage your institution’s collections and stories to serve as a resource for local Makers. Join Making Maven—and Chief Instigator of POW! (Paul Orselli Workshop) for hands-on demos and resources in the Exhibit Hall on Thursday, September 17 at 9 am, 12 pm, and 2 pm.

History Happy Hours
Take a few moments for some informal networking with colleagues. Many of our affinity groups will be hosting informal meet-ups in the hotel or at local watering holes where you can talk with people who have similar professional interests. Food and drinks are not provided, but good conversation and connections are free. See the AASLH Registration Desk for a map and directions.

HOW CAN CLIO HELP THE PUBLIC?

Clio picks up a user’s location and connects them to a growing database of entries about historic sites throughout the United States. Clio provides information, embedded media, maps and directions, and links to relevant primary and secondary sources.

Clio is free for everyone, supported by grants and donations, and operated by Marshall University’s Public History Program. We hope that each entry will connect the public to historical sites, promote the best books and articles, and make the public more aware of other websites and mobile applications.

HOW DOES IT HELP PUBLIC HISTORIANS?

Clio provides free institutional accounts to libraries, historical societies, museums, and other institutions so that their staff and supporters can create, expand, and update entries together. Clio also provides special accounts for educators that allow them to create and improve entries with their students. Each entry reaches the public where they stand and demonstrates the need to sustain the institutions that preserve and interpret our history.

Clio connects our sense of place with knowledge about our past. It fuels our natural curiosity and helps us understand and value the lessons of history that surround us.

History majors often wonder what they can do with their degree other than teach in a traditional classroom. The Master of Arts in Public History focuses on collections and interpretations and gives students a new direction to take with their careers. Public historians are trained to explain past human behavior in a variety of different contexts. It is history that is seen through museum exhibits, internet websites, documentaries, books, articles and audiovisual presentations. Located in Northern Kentucky near Cincinnati, we are part of the History and Geography department at NKU. Our students work in various museums around the country. For more information visit http://arts.cscie.nku.edu/departments/hisgeo/maph.htm.

A River Runs Through It
8 am–5 pm  COST: $65
Experience some of Louisville's finest historic attractions while learning how the Ohio River helped shape this dynamic city. Begin at the Falls of the Ohio Interpretive Center with a hard hat tour of the exciting new exhibits overlooking the Devonian fossil beds that created the Falls. Next, travel south to Riverside, the Farnsley-Moremen Landing, to learn about historic farm life along the Ohio and get a behind-the-scenes look at its award-winning public archaeology program. Enjoy lunch in this beautiful setting before heading north again to Waterfront Park to visit our nation's oldest operating steamboat, the Belle of Louisville and take a short history walk to learn about the city's thriving 19th-century waterfront. Wind up your afternoon at the brand-new WaterWorks Museum at the National Historic Landmark Water Tower.

Capitols, Criminals, and Candy: The Frankfort Experience
8 am–5 pm  COST: $65
Delve into history, outlaws, and mouthwatering candy in this easy daytrip to Frankfort—the only pro-Union state capital captured by Confederate forces. Upon arrival, launch into “Murder and Mayhem” with Frankfort historian Russ Hatter, who paints a vivid picture of some of the state’s most heinous crimes against the downtown backdrop. From seedy past, move on to Frankfort’s elegant side, beginning at the resplendent Beaux Arts-inspired State Capitol, followed by lunch at the Governor’s Mansion. Next, it’s on to the Kentucky Historical Society campus for a behind-the-scenes tour of the Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History and a look at the Old State Capitol. This architectural treasure introduced Greek Revival to the pioneering West. Cap off your Frankfort tour with history you can taste, at the Rebecca Ruth Candy factory, home of the world-famous bourbon ball.

Brandy, Bourbon, and Skyline
1–5 pm  COST: $50
Get a taste of the rich history of craft distilleries without ever leaving Louisville. This tour begins with a step back in time at Evan Williams, where you can experience life and distilling just as it was in our nation’s early days. This corporate history tour includes a look at the operations and premium bourbon tastings with souvenir glass, with an end stop at the Evan Williams’ retail shop. Next, board the bus for Louisville’s historic Butchertown district, home of Copper & Kings American Brandy. Enjoy a walk through the beautiful grounds and distillery, capped by a tasting on C&K's spectacular sky deck overlooking the Louisville skyline. Limited to 25.

Thursday, September 17

Walking Tour: Historic West Main
7–8:30 am  COST: $15
Enjoy a walking tour of Louisville’s famous Whiskey Row and Historic East Main Street with Dr. Tom Owen of the University of Louisville. The lively Main Street area is currently home to many of Louisville’s cultural attractions and it boasts the second-largest number of cast-iron facades in the world (second only to SoHo in New York).

Planters and Barons: The Culbertson and Speed Experience
1:30–5 pm  COST: $35
Don’t miss this chance to experience two of the area’s most seminal historic homes and the families behind them. No house in Kentucky more gracefully embodies Federal architecture than Farmington. Built for John and Lucy Speed and completed in 1816, it was the center of a thriving hemp plantation. They hosted many dignitaries, including Abraham Lincoln, whose enduring friendship with this slaveholding family proved important to his presidency and the Civil War. Then cross the Ohio River for a look at a masterpiece of Victorian artistry. The Culbertson Mansion’s hand-painted ceilings, carved staircase, marble fireplaces, and elaborate plasterwork reflect the affluence of a man once considered Indiana’s wealthiest.

Louisville Women’s Suffrage Tour
1–5 pm
COST: $35
Have you begun preparing for August 26, 2020—the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment? The AASLH Women’s History Affinity Group, the National Collaborative of Women’s History Sites, and the League of Women Voters of Louisville have teamed up to present this tour of Louisville places where the fight for women’s right to vote occurred. Participants not only gain a greater understanding of the struggles they went through, but might just be inspired to learn where the suffrage battles occurred in your own state. Included will be a brainstorming session on how to celebrate the centennial of woman’s suffrage in your community and take home materials detailing how to create your own local suffrage tour.

Filson Historical Society
1:30–4:30 pm
COST: $35
Join us for a hard hat tour of The Filson Historical Society’s campus expansion project located in Old Louisville, the nation’s largest collection of Victorian homes according to the National Trust. The $11.7 million project will double The Filson’s campus, home to outstanding historical research collections, portraiture, and the historic 1905 Beaux Arts Ferguson Mansion. Also, learn about the obstacles and opportunities of campus expansion in a National Register district. Limited to 30 people.

Roll Out the Bourbon Barrel
7:30 am – 5 pm COST: $75
Hop aboard the AASLH bourbon bus bound for Woodford Reserve, the oldest working bourbon distillery in the United States. This National Historic Landmark is located in the heart of horse country. After touring the distillery and sampling the spirits, it’s on to nearby Midway, a quaint town known for its gastronomic delights, headlined by Holly Hill Inn. Here, in this ca. 1845 setting, enjoy a three-course lunch defined by award-winning fare “that speaks Bluegrass.” Wrap up the day with a visit to another National Historic Landmark, the 200-year-old Buffalo Trace Distillery in Frankfort, home of the “world’s most award-winning distillery”—and more bourbon samples, of course. By the time you get back to the hotel, you can “speak bourbon” and regale your friends and family with your newfound knowledge of Kentucky’s true spirit(s).

Backstretch Breakfast Tour
8 am – 12 pm COST: $50
Experience what few outsiders ever do—backside at Churchill Downs, home of the Kentucky Derby. Rub elbows with the trainers, jockeys, and the other people who make thoroughbred racing come alive while enjoying breakfast in the track kitchen and watching the horses on their morning workouts. Then take advantage of the historic walking tour of Churchill Downs led by entertaining and knowledgeable tour guides. You’ll see the racetrack, finish line, winner’s circle, the iconic Twin Spires, and more. After the tour, visit the Kentucky Derby Museum. Don’t forget to take a stroll through the backyard paddock to meet the equine residents while also paying tribute to five Derby winners respectfully interred in the lovely Churchill Downs’ garden.

Art on the Side
1 – 5 pm COST: $15
Louisville owns more than 300 public art works ranging from monumental outdoor sculptures and mosaic murals to fountains. Join us for a look at some of this rich and varied collection found just beyond your hotel door. This guided walking tour begins at the Kentucky International Convention Center where you’ll learn about its magnificent floor mosaic. Next stop is Theatre Square to view Barney Bright’s iconic Louisville Clock and sculptures by Raymond Graf. Along the way, enjoy plenty of other intriguing works of art, including numerous, definitely-not-your-typical bike racks. The tour concludes at the Main Library branch, which houses several pieces both indoors and out anchored by large-scale sculptures of Abraham Lincoln and Benjamin Franklin.

New! AASLH 5K Fun Run
7–9 am COST: $40
Join us on Saturday morning for exercise, history, and an informal visit with colleagues! Enjoy the great outdoors as we gather at the award-winning Louisville Waterfront Park and run a 5K course together. We will conclude at the new Lincoln statue at Waterfront Park where we will hear from renowned sculptor and Louisville native Ed Hamilton. While in the park, you also will want to cross the Big Four (pedestrian) Bridge into historic Jeffersonville, Indiana. In addition to getting some exercise and supporting a great cause (a portion of your registration fee will go to the AASLH Annual Fund), you will get a t-shirt to commemorate the occasion and enjoy an active history experience! Transportation will be provided to and from host hotel.
An Evening at Locust Grove

Wednesday, September 16
6:30–9 pm
COST: $50
Come tour the home of General George Rogers Clark, American Revolutionary War hero and founder of Louisville. This 1790 Georgian mansion tells the story of its builders, William and Lucy Clark Croghan, and of America’s beginnings, too. The Croghans along with Lucy’s brother General Clark welcomed a generation of American luminaries to their home to rest, converse, campaign, and duel. Presidents James Monroe and Andrew Jackson, John James Audubon, Cassius Marcellus Clay, and Lewis and Clark—among others—all passed through Locust Grove. Now a National Historic Landmark, Locust Grove is a unique example of early Kentucky architecture, craftsmanship, and history. The evening will offer costumed interpreters and tours, live music, a three course buffet, hearth-cooked and preserved foods reminiscent of early 19th-century Kentucky, and more.

Thursday, September 17
6:30–9:30 pm
COST: $32
Louisville welcomes AASLH in true southern style, closing the street for an all-out party on Museum Row. The night includes heavy hors d’oeuvres, cash bar, and live entertainment along the Row’s four walkable blocks, plus free admission and gift shop discounts in the museums along the row including the Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory, Sons of the American Revolution Museum and Research Library, and Frazier History Museum. The Kentucky Historical Society’s HistoryMobile will also be available for tours. Join your colleagues for an unforgettable evening on the streets of Louisville.

Leadership in History Awards Banquet

Friday, September 18
6:30–9:30 pm
COST: $60
Join AASLH in honoring the best in state and local history at the 2015 Leadership in History Awards. Carol Kammen, author of On Doing Local History, will provide the banquet address. The evening will also include dinner and a lively awards presentation.

These events are not included in the annual meeting registration fee and require preregistration. Please see the registration desk for details.

CEO Forum: Leadership 4C
COST: $115
Room: Bluegrass I
Who could have imagined ten years ago that history leaders would be concerned about creating value for our communities, bringing our resources to bear on solving social challenges such as literacy, or being at the table when critical decisions about educational standards are being considered? Creating relevance is key, and those leaders who can both focus on the current, and look down the chessboard far enough to imagine and prepare for the organization’s future well-being, are the leaders needed for the next generation of success. Be challenged as the group considers how leadership Competency, Courage, Commitment, and Communication are key to an organization’s success.
Chair, Janet Gallimore, Executive Director, Idaho State Historical Society, Boise, ID

FULL DAY WORKSHOP
9 am–4 pm
Identification and Care of Photographs
COST: $75

History Relevance Campaign

GENERAL SESSIONS

Is History Relevant? Then Let’s Do Something About It!

Room: Salon E–G

If you believe history deserves better positioning, fire up your passion with the History Relevance Campaign. Learn about what your colleagues are doing to elevate the value of history, share what you are doing, and walk away with a variety of ways to take action now. Grad students to CEOs and everyone in between have work to do to make the case for history. Come prepared to share, learn and be inspired. Come to one or both sessions.

1:30–2:45 pm

Learn what the History Relevance Campaign has been doing. Hear how Callie Hawkins at President Lincoln’s Cottage has measured the impact of her relevance work. Share your ideas about how your institution’s mission and collection connect to current community issues and sign up to engage in drawing greater attention to the value of history.

4–5:15 pm

This one is all about YOU. What can YOU do as an individual, regardless of your position or longevity in the field? How can YOU influence YOUR INSTITU-TION to push history into the limelight? What can YOU do to fire up passion for history in YOUR COMMUNITY? Spend time at five stations to hear from colleagues who are walking the walk and learn what YOU can do.

New Ways to Read Old Objects

Room: Salon II

From the buildings on our block to the quilt on our couch, we interact with history daily. Yet too often we ignore our historical landscape in favor of formal texts. In this session, we’ll challenge this trend with techniques to help us read the objects around us.

Chair: Mindy Farmer, Director, May 4 Visitors Center at Kent State University, Kent, OH; Christine Baron, Assistant Professor Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, NY; Ware Petznick, Executive Director, Shaker Historical Society, Shaker Heights, OH

Oral History Interactives: Going Beyond the Interview to Create Multimedia Experiences

Room: Salon IV

Learn how the Ohio History Connection has used OHMS to create oral history interactives. We will discuss the challenges of producing high-quality oral histories, the additional challenges of producing them as oral history interactives, provide useful work flows, and include a Q&A discussion about oral history in the digital age.

Chair: Ty Pierce, Manager of Multimedia Services, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH

The Transformative Power of Well-Conceived Outcomes

Room: Place

Are the outcomes you write for programming and exhibits carrying their own weight? A good set of outcomes have the power to transform a program or organization, but only if they fully accommodate audience (including teachers) needs. Bring your outcomes or start from scratch.

Chair: K. Allison Wickens, Vice President of Education, George Washington’s Mt. Vernon, Mt. Vernon, VA

We Can Do It! Uncovering Women’s History Together

Room: Skybox

From a Whisper to a Shout: Finding Ways to Share Women’s History through Innovative Collaboration
Room: Salon I
The newly formed Women’s History Affinity Group invites you to join in a roundtable discussion of ways in which women’s stories and voices can be found and integrated into cultural heritage sites and museums. Whether women’s voices are the primary stories at your site or not, all are encouraged to attend.
Co-Chairs: Page Harrington, Executive Director, Sewall-Belmont House and Museum, Washington, D.C., and Rebecca Price, Chick History, Nashville, TN; Women’s History Affinity Group Advisory Committee Members: Jennifer Krafchik, Megan Byrnes, Maria Quinlan Leiby, Michele Dunham, Sarah Jencks, Steve Cotherman, Pat Mooney-Melvin, and Amy Wywialowski

Historical Thinking Is an Unnatural Act
Room: Skybox
Sam Wineburg writes that “history teaches us a way to make choices, to balance opinions, to tell stories, and to become uneasy—when necessary—about the stories we tell.” Should public historians be doing more to explain the historical process? How do we do that?
Chair: Tim Grove, Chief of Museum Learning, Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum, Washington, DC

Marketing Educational Programming in Tough Times
Room: Rose
Standards alignment is only the first step in developing successful educational programs. Public historians must also evaluate educational impact and convincingly market programs as wise investments for schools. Presenters will share first-person experiences in meeting aspects of these challenges and then collaborate with the audience to find new ideas.
Chair: Betsy Hedler, Project Manager, Ohio as America Online Textbook, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH; Callie Hawkins, Associate Director for Programs, President Lincoln’s Cottage, Washington, DC; Tim Hoogland, Director of Education Outreach, Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul, MN

New Partners and New Opportunities
Room: Salon III
A successful collaborative project yields high rewards for everyone. Innovative collaborations between museums and nontraditional or unexpected partners helps build relationships, execute successful projects, increase visibility, and enhance goodwill. This session will examine recent examples of museums working with nontraditional partners to help advance the missions of both.
Chair: Bruce Whitmarsh, Director, Chemung County Historical Society, Elmira, NY; Lindsey Baker, Executive Director, Laurel Historical Society, Laurel MD; Melissa Prycer, Executive Director, Dallas Heritage Village, Dallas, TX

Old Houses, New Diverse Stories
Room: Salon II
What story does your historic house tell? What stories are not told? Hear how some houses reinterpreted their spaces to tell diverse stories once untold, placed stories in larger contexts, and engaged their communities in the process. Brainstorm new angles for your own historic house reinterpretation with panelists and participants.
Online Engagement: An Almost Useless Term

Chair: Rebecca Martin, Director of Education and Guest Experiences, George Mason's Gunston Hall, Mason Neck, VA; Matthew Butler, Senior Developer, Digital Scholarship and Publishing Studio, University of Iowa Libraries, Iowa City, IA; Becky Schloemann, Coordinator, Bicentennial Programs, Education and Community Engagement, Indianapolis, IN; Steven Yalowitz, Principal, Audience Viewpoints, Herndon, VA

Marketing, education, collections information... what does online engagement mean? Our online presence needs to follow the same rules as our other public-facing activities. We need to determine our audience, set our goals, and evaluate our performance. Delve into issues around engagement and build your skills in evaluating your efforts.

Remembering World War I

Chair: Bob Beatty, Chief Operating Officer, AASLH, Nashville, TN; Matthew C. Naylor, President and CEO, National WWI Museum and Memorial, Kansas City, MO; Libby O’Connell, Chief Historian/SVP Corporate Social Responsibility, HISTORY, New York, NY; Christine Pittsley, Project Manager, Remembering World War One: Sharing History/Preserving Memories, Connecticut State Library, Hartford, CT; Jon Voss, Strategic Partnerships Director, Historypin, San Francisco, CA

Join us as we discuss the possibilities for meaningful WWI centennial commemorations with colleagues from across the field. What strategies can we employ to engage the public? How can we learn from commemorations in Europe? How can we preserve community memory?

Successful Delegation Makes Great Things Possible!

Chair: Trevor Jones, Director of Museum Collections and Exhibitions, Kentucky Historical Society, Frankfort, KY; Linnea Grim, Hunter J. Smith Director of Education and visitor programs, Monticello, Charlottesville, VA

If you’ve ever thought, “It will just be quicker and better if I do it myself,” this session is for you! Learn how to delegate tasks so your organization can achieve its goals and you can have more time for your priorities. This session focuses on real-world practical applications.

An Untapped Resource: How to Locate and Use Legal Cases at Historic Sites

Chair: Matthew Hofstedt, Associate Curator, Supreme Court of the United States, Washington, DC; Andy D. Bennett, Judge, Tennessee Court of Appeals, Nashville, TN; Daniel Holt, Associate Historian, Federal Judicial Center, Washington, DC; Gennie Truelock, Programs Manager, The Homestead Museum, City of Industry, CA

Legal conflicts and their resolution in the courts encompass a wealth of stories that illuminate the past. Come learn how to mine legal case files for compelling narratives and hear about how two museums have created exhibits and public programs that highlight how lives and communities are shaped by law.

Visitors Talk Back: What Audiences Tell Museums

Chair: Barbara Franco, Founding Director Emeritus, Gettysburg Seminary Ridge Museum, Gettysburg, PA; Josh Howard, Graduate Assistant, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, TN; Peter Miele, Education Coordinator, Gettysburg Seminary Ridge Museum, Gettysburg, PA; John M. Rudy, Park Ranger/Interpretive Trainer, National Park Service, Harper’s Ferry, WV

Museums that are using talk-back cards and dialogue in exhibits also make a commitment to systematically preserve and analyze the responses to better understand visitor experiences.

NCPH Poster Session

Chair: Wendell Berry, Dr. James C. Klotter, and Renee Shaw

The National Council on Public History has partnered again with AASLH to sponsor a Poster Session at the 2015 AASLH Annual Meeting. Built on NCPH’s model for public history presentations about projects that use visual evidence, presenters will share their work through one-on-one discussion, including works-in-progress. Come see what exciting projects your colleagues are doing.

Crazy, Sexy, Trendy: Technology and Your Organization
► Room: Salon I
Overwhelmed by technology? Are you distracted by the latest gadgets and apps? This session will briefly discuss the latest glitz and glamour of tech but will focus on the bricks and mortar of technology in history organizations and the resources available to help guide realistic and strategic long-term planning.

Chair: Jamie Glavic, Director, Marketing/Communications, National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, Cincinnati, OH; Tim Grove, Chief of Museum Learning, Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum, Washington, DC

Engaging the Grown-Ups: A Roundtable Exploring New Strategies
► Room: Bluegrass I/II
For the past decade, museums have embraced the “young professionals” model to attract the next generation of visitors and donors. Now that the first generation is aging out, what’s next in the ladder of engagement? What programming do mid-life supporters want? How can we best meet their needs? Let’s discuss.

Chair: Sarah Jencks, Director of Education Programming, Ford’s Theatre Society, Washington, DC; Tobi Voigt, Chief Curatorial Officer, Detroit Historical Society, Detroit, MI; Megan Wood, Director of Museum and Library Services, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH

From Boomers to Millennials: Strengthening Our Workforce through Generational Diversity
► Room: Salon C
The paid and volunteer staff members working in our history organizations represent a variety of generations—Boomer, Gen X, Millennial—all having different working styles and values. Through presentations and roundtable discussions, explore how to better understand and improve intergenerational dynamics and, in turn, significantly strengthen our organizations and individual career paths.

Chair: Karen Graham Wade, Director, Homestead Museum, City of Industry, CA; Heidi Kloempken, Teacher Education Program Specialist, Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul, MN; Bill Peterson, Director, Northern Division of the Arizona Historical Society, Flagstaff, AZ

Preservation50: Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the National Historic Preservation Act
► Room: Salon III
Historic preservation advocates across the country are gearing up for Preservation50, a year-long series of activities during 2016 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the passage of the National Historic Preservation Act. Please join us to learn about Preservation50’s missions, goals, and programming, and how your organization can participate.

Chair: Eden Burgess, Attorney at Law, Cultural Heritage Partners, PLLC, Washington DC; Ron Anzalone, Director, Office of Preservation Initiatives, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, Washington, DC

Interpreting Religion at Historic Sites
► Room: Salon IV
How does a public historian leverage a responsibility to historical truth when interpreting religion at public history sites? This session will explore the interpretation of religious history at sites of memory and conscience, civic sites, and at sites of a religious nature.

Chair: Susan Fletcher, Historian, The Navigators, Colorado Springs, CO; Dr. Fred Beuttler, Assistant Professor of History, Carroll University, Waukesha, WI; Dr. Jay Green, Professor of History, Covenant College, Lookout Mountain, GA

Pop-Up Session: Unfolding Events
► Room: Salon D
What role do cultural institutions have to engage, document, collect, and interpret historic events as they unfold? Who takes the lead when events take place in cities such as Ferguson, MO (Michael Brown shooting) and Indianapolis, IN (Religious Freedom Restoration Act) in real time and in both the physical and digital world? What constitutes a knee-jerk reaction versus professional activism in response to these events? Join the conversation about how museums can be responsive to history as it is happening.

Chair: Jason Crabill, Manager, Curatorial Services, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH

Historic Houses USA or How to Think Outside Your Box
► Room: Salon A/B
 Historic Houses USA invites participants to a session to rethink their work at historic houses. The session will include a state of the historic house museum, group thinking sessions, and a chance to talk about the positives and negatives of thinking outside the box.

Co-Chairs: Cindy Olsen, Director of Curation and Content Activation, Illich Holdings, Detroit, MI, and Joshua Campbell Torrence, Executive Director, Woodlawn Museum, Ellsworth, ME
The Secret to Innovative Initiatives

Room: Rose

Think you’re not an innovative thinker? Is your supervisor asking for bigger and brighter ideas? Worried that your staff is in a rut? Leap into the world of innovation! During this session, we will move from one diverse idea to another, showing how innovation is just around the corner.

Chair: Dina Bailey, Director of Educational Strategies, National Center for Civil and Human Rights, Atlanta, GA; Jon Carfagno, Director of Learning and Audience Engagement, Grand Rapids Art Museum, Grand Rapids, MI; Sarah Kate Baie, Director of Programming/Chief of Fictions, Museum of Contemporary Art Denver, Denver, CO

Commerce + Interpretation: The Possibilities, Pitfalls, and Principles of Shared Use at Historic Sites

Room: Salon I

Shared use between for-profit commercial ventures and museum operations—the best new idea for sustaining historic sites or a risky proposition? The National Trust offers a frank assessment of prototyping this model at Cooper-Molera Adobe from different perspectives and provides a toolkit for evaluating it at your own site.

Chair: Katherine Malone-France, Vice President for Historic Sites, National Trust for Historic Preservation, Washington, DC; Paul Edmondson, Chief Legal Officer, National Trust for Historic Preservation, Washington, DC; Douglas Wiele, Founder and President, Foothill Partners, El Dorado Hills, CA

The Extraordinary of the Ordinary: Challenges of Building a Collection for the National 9/11 Memorial Museum

Room: Skybox

How do high-heeled shoes, a red bandana, and a hospital gown tell the story of 9/11? Curators at the 9/11 Memorial Museum discuss humble objects that stand at the intersection of the ordinary day that was to be and the extraordinary acts of courage and compassion they witnessed.

Chair: Jan Seidler Ramirez, Chief Curator and Vice President for Collections, 9/11 Memorial Museum, New York, NY; Alexandra Drakakis, Associate Curator, 9/11 Memorial Museum, New York, NY; Amy Feinstein, Director of Collections, 9/11 Memorial Museum, New York, NY

Field Services Alliance Tips: Demonstrating Relevance

Room: Salon II

Historical organizations must develop and demonstrate relevance to remain successful. In this highly participatory session, attendees will work in small groups and then in the large group to identify means to develop and demonstrate relevance. Following the session, the facilitators will compile and distribute the group’s findings to all participants.

Chair: Mark Sundlov, Manager, Local History Office, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH; Stuart W. Sanders, Community Services Administrator, Kentucky Historical Society, Frankfort, KY
New Strategies for Inclusive Commemoration
► Room: Salon III

Commemorations are a significant feature of public programming, but can become mired in tradition, politics, and memory. Together we will explore new strategies for inclusive, innovative programs through case studies of 250-, 150-, and 50-year commemorations and discuss how to commemorate what’s happening today.

Co-Chairs: Erin Carlson Mast, Executive Director, President Lincoln’s Cottage, Washington, DC and Dina Bailey, Director of Educational Strategies, National Center for Civil and Human Rights, Atlanta, GA; Sarah Jencks, Director of Education Programming, Ford’s Theatre Society, Washington DC; Jody Sowell, Director of Exhibitions and Research, Missouri History Museum, St. Louis, MO

The Power of Possibility: Developing Partnerships through Project-Based Learning
► Room: Salon IV

Project-based learning is a teaching method where students gain knowledge and skills investigating and responding to a complex question, problem, or challenge. This discussion on the successes and challenges of a year-long project-based learning project will help participants think about ways their museums can incorporate project-based learning into their school programming.

Chair: Tori Mason, Historic Site Manager, Nashville Zoo at Grassmere, Nashville, TN; Thaisa Bell, School Programs Manager, Nashville Zoo at Grassmere, Nashville TN; Dr. Shannon Hodge, Associate Professor of Anthropology and Sociology, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro TN; Rebecca Verner, Instructional Designer, Metro Nashville Public Schools / John Early Museum Magnet Middle School, Nashville TN

Reinventing Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill
► Room: Thoroughbred

Is institutional reinvention possible in the face of more than 50 years of tradition? This session explores how one of Kentucky’s most recognizable historic sites embraced the possibilities of change, and how lessons learned in the arenas of institutional unity, branding, and interpretation can be applied by other sites.

Chair: Aaron Genton, Collections Manager, Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill, Harrodsburg, KY; Amy Bugg, Director of Marketing and Communications, Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill, Harrodsburg, KY; Maynard Crossland, President and CEO, Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill, Harrodsburg, KY; Jill Malusky, Director of Visitor Engagement, Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill, Harrodsburg, KY

Stories from the HEART: Ten Years after Katrina and Rita
► Room: Place

In 2005, the Gulf Coast was hammered by two hurricanes. AASLH, working with other organizations, responded by dispatching Historian Emergency Assistance Recovery Teams (HEART) to offer aid in documenting and mitigating storm damage to cultural resources in Louisiana and Mississippi. This roundtable reviews those efforts, ten years later.

Chair: Vincent Murray, Historian, Arizona Historical Research, Phoenix, AZ; John W. Durel, Ph.D., Durel Consulting Partners, Baltimore, MD; Patrick Hotard, Executive Director, Southern Arkansas Historical Foundation and Newton House Museum, El Dorado, AR; Michelle Zupan, Curator and Director, Hickory Hill, Tomson, GA

That Belongs in a Museum! Community Curation through Personal Collecting
► Room: Salon C

A spittoon, a Geiger counter, and a pair of tap shoes walk into a bar… to participate in “That Belongs in a Museum,” a Chicago-based storytelling-with-objects event series held at a local pub. The event co-founders will present about engaging audiences with museum content outside a traditional museum setting.

Religious History Breakfast
COST: $35, PREREGISTRATION REQUIRED
Room: Win

Most historic organizations have stories to tell related to the religious history and traditions of their town or site. Join the Religious History Affinity Group to hear from Aaron Genton, Program Specialist at Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill. He will share about the Pleasant Hill Shakers and their beliefs and the ways the site has tried to tell that story in the past, present, and perhaps in the future.
Chair: Gary L. Boatright, Jr., Curator, Historic Sites, Church History Department, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Salt Lake City, UT

STEPS Breakfast
COST: $35
Room: Skybox

STEPS Museums Unite! We’re 675 strong and it’s time to celebrate our successes (while commiserating about our challenges, too). Whether currently enrolled in the Standards and Excellence Program for History Organizations or still on the fence, all are invited to join us for laughter, inspiration, and STEPS Bingo! Bring a sample policy, a challenge, or a success story, no matter how small. All conference attendees invited.
Chair: Cherie Cook, Senior Program Manager, AASLH, Nashville, TN

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

9–10:15 am

Ferguson, USA
Room: Salon G

In the wake of Michael Brown’s death, people closely examined the past, present, and future of the state of Missouri. The Missouri History Museum is located approximately 20 minutes from Ferguson. This resulted in a wave of community engagement opportunities and potential pitfalls. What happened? What would you do?
Chair: Melanie Adams, Managing Director, Community Education and Events, Missouri History Museum, St. Louis, MO

Great Exhibits Don’t Happen By Accident
Room: Salon D

Your exhibit just got approved. The possibilities seem endless. Where to begin? This session focuses on just that: the beginning. The early exhibit planning phase, before any exhibit design occurs, is the crucial time for laying a firm foundation that will lead to an effective and engaging exhibit.
Chair: Donna Braden, Curator of Public Life and Senior Experience Developer, The Henry Ford, Dearborn, MI; Dean Krimmel, Principal, Creative Museum Services, Baltimore, MD

Making the Common Core Connection: History Organizations and the School Audience
Room: Salon F

This forum will examine the shift to Common Core and the challenges and opportunities it creates for history organizations in serving the school audience. Using concrete examples and collaborative group problem-solving, participants will leave with a deeper knowledge of the standards and action steps in applying them to their work.
Chair: Heidi Moisan, School Programs Manager, Chicago History Museum, Chicago, IL; Megan Clark, School Programs Coordinator, Chicago History Museum, Chicago, IL

Powerful Funding Makes History Possible
Room: Filly

Are you part of a coalition advocating for the creation of powerful new streams of funding that will make history more accessible, more consistent with standards, more prevalent, and more relevant? Learn about expectations and realities of sources such as lodging, sales, environmental offset taxes, and voluntary income taxes.
Chair: David Grabitske, Manager of Outreach Services, Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul, MN; Kristin Han Burgoyne, Grants Director, Montana Arts Council, Helena, MT; Eric Taylor, Heritage Lead, 4Culture, Seattle, WA; Andy Verhoff, History Fund Grant Manager, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH

The Rights Stuff: Copyrights, Access, and Digital Cultural Heritage Materials
Room: Salon A/B

Confounded by copyright? The Digital Public Library of America and its Service Hubs are working with local partners to apply appropriate rights language to the cultural heritage objects in their care. Learn about rights and licensing statements that you can use to describe the legal status of your digital objects.
Chair: Stacy Klingler, Executive Director, William Butterworth Foundation, Moline, IL; Heather Gilbert, Head of Digital Scholarship and Services, Addlestone Library, College of Charleston, Charleston, SC; Jason Roy, Director, Digital Library Services, University of Minnesota Libraries, Minneapolis, MN; Amy Rudersdorf, Assistant Director for Content, Digital Public Library of America, Madison, WI

Building Identity to Attract New Audiences
Room: Salon C

How we name our organizations is a provocative issue in our field: do we hold onto and honor our own past or do we aim to meet audiences where they are today? We will discuss the factors to consider and the process from exploration to implementation.
Chair: Jamison Pack, Chief Marketing Officer, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH; Russell Lewis, Executive Vice President and Chief Historian, Chicago History, Chicago, IL; Dave Reinfeld, Vice President, Development, Chester County Historical Society, West Chester, PA

Break in Foyer

10:15–10:45 am
The program committee for the 2016 Annual Meeting in Detroit, MI, wants to hear your ideas for making the next meeting better. What did you like about the Louisville meeting? What should we have done differently? Members of the 2016 Annual Meeting program committee should attend. All meeting attendees are welcome.

Chair: David Janssen, Executive Director, Brucemore, Inc., Cedar Rapids, IA

Achieving the Impossible: Strategies for Completing Projects That Seem Unlikely

This session discusses three projects at local museums that seemed insurmountable, including moving a historic village to a new location and developing, opening, and accrediting a new museum in under three years. The presentation will provide detailed information on strategies for completing and funding the impossible.

Chair: Neal Hitch, Executive Director, Imperial Valley Desert Museum, Ocotillo, CA; Jacqui Ainalay-Conley, Museum Administrator, City and County of Broomfield, Broomfield, CO; Leo J. Goodsell, Executive Director, Historic Westerville, Inc., Lumpkin, GA

Controversial Objects

Museums and archives are often owners of artifacts that are mysterious or controversial. Figuring out what items are, their place in historical context, and display options can be daunting. Presenters will discuss items that posed problems, and attendees are encouraged to bring in stories about experiences with controversial artifacts.

Chair: Erica Ward, Archivist, Research and Academic Support Specialist, The Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN; Casey Mathern, Curator of Objects and Exhibits, Goodhue County Historical Society, Red Wing, MN; Katie Prichard, Volunteer, Minnesota Military Museum, Little Falls, MN

Don’t Be a Runaway Bride: The Possibility of Building a Long-Term Relationship with Your Community

Participants will explore ways to build sustainable relationships with communities. What are different stages of community engagement and methods museum practitioners can use? Together we’ll explore key ingredients for various options—from the “getting to know you” stage to an enduring long-term relationship, ending the session fully “engaged.”

Chair: Lindsey Baker, Executive Director, Laurel Historical Society, Laurel, MD; Beth Maloney, Museum Education Consultant, Baltimore, MD; Linda Norris, Independent Museum Professional, The Uncataloged Museum, Treadwell, NY

Florida Museum of Natural History proudly presents:

Making the Invisible Visible: Using Mobile Technology and Creative Storytelling to (Re)Discover a Virginia Historic Site

- Room: Salon F

Stratford Hall set out to change the way visitors experience their history with a mobile interpretation pilot launched winter 2014. The project team will discuss how mobile technology is allowing storytelling from multiple perspectives (including user- and staff-generated content) and providing an engaging experience for all ages.

Chair: Abigail Newkirk, Director of Interpretation and Education, Stratford Hall, Stratford, VA; Conny Graft, Research and Evaluation, Williamsburg, VA; Charles Outhier, Independent Museum Consultant, Museums2Go, Philadelphia, PA

School Bus Grants for Historic Sites and Museums

- Room: Salon D

Your site’s programs meet benchmarks for students, people that visit your site love it, and kids learn there, too. Why aren’t more coming? It may be as simple as transportation costs. Three sites have overcome that barrier by offering bus transportation grants. Discover how you can start a school bus grant program.

Chair: Andy Verhoff, History Fund Grant Manager, Ohio History Connection, Columbus, OH; Richard Cooper, Interim Director of Museum Experiences, National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, Cincinnati, OH; Glenna Hoff, Education and Program Director, Campus Martius Museum & Ohio River Museum, Marietta, OH; Cheryl Straker, Deputy Director of Museum and Education, Ohio Statehouse, Columbus, OH

Best Practices for Interpreting Slavery at Museums and Historic Sites

COST: $75

- Location: Historic Locust Grove

Historic Locust Grove serves as a laboratory for our exploration of comprehensive and conscientious interpretation of slavery. We’ll share best practices for connecting and extending your site’s interpretation of its history of slavery and helping staff achieve a greater understanding of difficult knowledge and navigating complicated emotions.

Chair: Kristin Gallas, Consultant, Tracing Center on Histories and Legacies of Slavery, Medford, MA; Patricia Brooks, Senior Program Officer, National Endowment for the Humanities, Washington, DC; Carol Ely, Executive Director, Locust Grove, Louisville, KY

1:30–5:30 pm

Black History Matters: High-Impact Programming for African American Audiences

COST: $45

- Room: Win

Topics such as race and slavery cause institutional discomfort, and most programs do not touch on our painful history and its heritage of racism and anger. Participants will explore breakthrough strategies for delivering highly relevant, emotionally rich programming for African Americans and racially diverse audiences.

Game Design Workshop: Basic Design Concepts for History Museums

COST: $45

- Room: Paddock

Digital games offer museums a new type of engaging, meaningful learning experience. But how do you design a good game? Through small group prototyping exercises, participants will learn how the elements of a game (actions, rules, chance, skill) come together to create compelling, even addicting, learning experiences for our audiences.

Chair: David T. Schaller, Principal, Eduweb, St. Paul, MN; Tobi Voigt, Chief Curatorial Officer, Detroit Historical Society, Detroit, MI

Gathering Feedback without Breaking Your Back or the Bank

COST: $45

- Room: Thoroughbred

Interested in incorporating evaluation and reflective practice into your work? This hands-on session will introduce a practical, tested approach for building your evaluation capacity and using data to improve your educational products and practices. The session is particularly relevant for educators, program and exhibit developers, and their managers.

Chair: Sarah Cohn, Owner, Cohn Consulting, St. Paul, MN; Sheila Brommel, Evaluation Manager, Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul, MN; Erica Orton, Program Assistant, Minnesota History Center, St. Paul, MN

Onsite Design Lab at Solid Light

COST: $25

- Location: Solid Light

Solid Light will open up its downtown Louisville studio so conference participants can immerse themselves in the exciting and dynamic world of design, with behind-the-scenes glimpses into ways designers approach exhibit challenges. Here, museum and design professionals will use their own experiences to provide mini-workshops on common design challenges.

Chair: Cynthia Torp, President, Solid Light, Inc., Louisville, KY; Scott Alvey, Assistant Director, Kentucky Historical Society, Frankfort, KY; Mandie Clark, Communications Electronic Design, EIT, CTS for Communications Electronic Design, Louisville, KY; Howard Kittell, President and CEO, Andrew Jackson’s Hermitage, Hermitage, TN; John Murphy, Creative Director, Solid Light, Inc., Louisville, KY; Sally Newkirk, Director, Carnegie Center for Art and History, New Albany, IN; Jonathan Noffke, Production Director, Solid Light, Inc., Louisville, KY
